The Day the Toilet Exploded

There once was a toilet, so grand and so white,

It sat in the bathroom, shining so bright.

But one fateful day, it went berserk,

And exploded with a deafening quirk.

Water and paper flew high in the air,

As the toilet danced with a mischievous flair.

The bathroom was flooded, a comical sight,

The toilet had thrown a temper tantrum, alright!

The Grumpy Cat in the Bathtub

In a bathtub, a grumpy cat sat,

With its fur all wet and its face quite flat.

It hated taking baths, it grumbled and sighed,

But the water was warm, it couldn't hide.

It tried to escape, but the walls were too high,

The cat was trapped, with nowhere to fly.

So it sulked and it pouted, all day long,

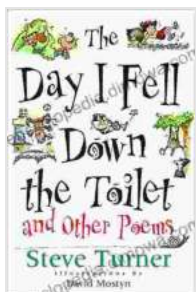

A grumpy cat in a bathtub, where it belongs.

These are just a taste of the laughter-filled poems that await you in "The Day the Toilet Exploded and Other Poems".

So gather your little ones, curl up on the couch, and get ready for a poetic adventure that will leave you giggling and asking for more.
