Prepare to be Captivated by the Extraordinary Tale of Joshua Slocum

In 1895, Joshua Slocum embarked on a daring adventure that would etch his name into the annals of maritime history: he set sail from Boston, Massachusetts, with the unwavering determination to become the first person to sail alone around the world.

For three years, Slocum navigated treacherous seas, faced relentless storms, and encountered exotic cultures aboard his 37-foot sloop, the Spray. His extraordinary journey took him across the Atlantic, Pacific, and Indian Oceans, ultimately returning him to his starting point in 1898.

A Thrilling Adventure Brought to Life with Stunning Illustrations

Now, in this captivating illustrated edition, the timeless tale of Slocum's solo circumnavigation comes alive like never before. Renowned maritime artist Geoff Hunt has created a series of exquisite illustrations that capture the essence of Slocum's adventure, from the Spray's initial departure to its triumphant return.

Immerse Yourself in Slocum's Epic Voyage

Through Slocum's own vivid prose and Hunt's evocative illustrations, you'll experience firsthand the challenges, triumphs, and heart-stopping moments of this incredible journey. You'll witness Slocum's encounters with sea creatures, his repairs to the Spray in remote ports, and his remarkable resilience in the face of adversity.

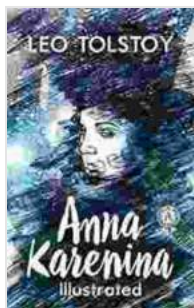

CAPTAIN COOK TREATING WITH THE NATIVES OF THE SAMOAN ISLANDS.
