Art Deco District: A Time Capsule of Glamour

Transport yourself back to the roaring twenties in the Art Deco District of Miami Beach. This vibrant neighborhood boasts an array of pastel-hued buildings adorned with intricate geometric patterns, neon signs, and porthole windows. The iconic Delano Hotel, with its curved facade and stepped roofline, epitomizes the Art Deco style.

Downtown Miami: The City's Soaring Heart

Ascend to the heavens in downtown Miami, where towering skyscrapers pierce the sky. The Freedom Tower, a former newspaper headquarters, stands as a beacon of Miami's past, while the Brickell City Centre combines shopping, dining, and entertainment within a magnificent mixed-use complex. Don't miss the Perez Art Museum Miami (PAMM) with its striking waterfront location and impressive collection of contemporary art.

Witness the architectural grandeur of downtown Miami's towering skyscrapers.

Coral Gables: A Mediterranean Oasis

Escape the urban hustle in the serene enclave of Coral Gables. This charming neighborhood is renowned for its Spanish Revival architecture, with whitewashed buildings, arched doorways, and terracotta roofs. The Biltmore Hotel, a grand resort from the 1920s, exemplifies the Mediterranean Revival style. Stroll along Miracle Mile, a vibrant commercial street lined with boutiques and cafes.

Coconut Grove: A Tropical Paradise

Seek respite in the tropical haven of Coconut Grove, where lush greenery and historic homes coexist harmoniously. The Vizcaya Museum and Gardens, a magnificent estate inspired by Italian Renaissance palaces, transports you to another era. Admire the charming cottages along Commodore's Row and explore the bohemian atmosphere of CocoWalk, an outdoor shopping and dining complex.

Immerse yourself in the tropical beauty of Coconut Grove and its historic architecture.

Key Biscayne: A Coastal Sanctuary

Escape to the tranquility of Key Biscayne, an island haven just off the coast of Miami. The Cape Florida Lighthouse, a historic beacon built in 1825, stands as a testament to the island's maritime heritage. Relax on the pristine beaches and admire the stunning waterfront homes, from modern mansions to classic beach bungalows.
